Houston City Council Member Anne Clutterbuck Unanimously Elected Mayor Pro Tem

City Council Member Anne Clutterbuck was appointed by Houston Mayor Annise Parker and unanimously approved by the Houston City Council to serve as the Mayor Pro Tem in a special meeting held January 4, 2010. The position of Mayor Pro Tem has been vacant since the election of Harris County Sherriff Adrian Garcia, who served as Mayor Pro Tem under Mayor Bill White.

"I am humbled by this opportunity afforded to me. As we lead our city into a new decade, it is my intent to ensure that the City of Houston is a positive model for cities around the world. As the Mayor Pro Tem, it is my honor and duty to ensure effective communication between the Administration and Council as well as be an extension of the Administration in the absence of the Mayor." said Mayor Pro Tem Clutterbuck.

Mayor Pro Tem Clutterbuck was elected to the Houston City Council November 2005 as the District C Council Member and has served as the Chairperson of the Budget and Fiscal Affairs for the past two years.
